

Fabiola Kramsky is a Visionary Entrepreneur, Three Emmy Award winner journalist and a skillful communicator for over 23 years.

She is the Founder | CEO of Tuiris, Inc. a Global Digital Media Network with Trending Information and News in Spanish.

Fabiola is considered a highly experienced TV, Radio and Internet News Anchor and Producer with a very unique style and a proven professional track record in Mexico and the U.S.

Over the years Fabiola has shown great ability to gain wide audience acceptance and following. A compelling story teller and skillful interviewer, Fabiola is well respected for her impacting yet easy to follow news coverage and her strong ability connect with the audience.

She was also awarded with the 'Premio Nacional de Periodismo', the highest recognition given to journalists in Mexico.

Fabiola has committed her professional life to increasing media access to underserved communities. In her personal life, Fabiola enjoys her family and working with non-profit organizations dedicated to helping at-risk youth and domestic violence survivors.